

My Wish To You

May your smiles be ever present, may your skies be always blue.
May your paths be ever upward, may your heart be ever true.
May your dreams be full to bursting, may your steps be always sure.
May the fire within your soul blaze on forever more.

The storms they may be wild, before you can pass through.
The road it may be tough, before it's true.
The sky it may be dark, before it can be blue.
Whatever you may do, please just be you.

May you live to meet ambition, may you strive to pass each test.
May you find the love your life deserves, may you always have the best.
May your blessings be a bounty, your regrets be far and few.
May you always be my friend: may you always just be you.
