

Whatever I Am

Whatever I am, I understand.
If I can't win I'll do whatever I can
to be somebody, to be a friend.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.

I am brave, you are strong.
Together we can sing, together we belong.
In a place where we can shine.
Together on a journey, this is our time.

Whatever I am, I understand.
If I can't win I'll do whatever I can
to be somebody, to be a friend.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.

When I'm afraid, you hold my hand.
Whenever you are lost, I'll be the one to find you.
Look around, I'll be there.
We'll always be together, we'll be somewhere.

Whatever I am, I understand.
If I can't win I'll do whatever I can
to be somebody, to be a friend.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.

If you've got something to say now,
don't hide away, stand up, stand out.
And if you just take a chance now,
sing and dance, stand up, stand out.

If you've got something to do now,
you'll get through, stand up, stand out.
And if you just got to move now,
go be brave, stand up, stand out.

Whatever I am, I understand.
If I can't win I'll do whatever I can
to be somebody, to be a friend.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.

Whatever I am, I understand.
If I can't win I'll do whatever I can
to be somebody, to be a friend.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.
Gotta be myself, whatever I am.
I've gotta be myself whatever I am.
